Press Release Body: "Guaranteed or Your Money Back" First National Diet Delivery Program to Guarantee You'll Like It Now You Can Taste It with No Risk

The proliferation of diet programs that just don't taste good has created many unhappy customers nationally. But now, Dr. Caroline Cederquist, M.D. is taking the stress out of dieting with the revolutionary Bistro MD No Risk Guarantee.

Our program is designed to provide you not only with a plan that takes care of every meal and snack for the day, but appeases all your gourmet cravings. And we're giving customers a chance to try our gourmet diet food with absolutely no risk.

If You Don't Like It, We'll Give You Back Your Money!

We'll send you a week's worth of food. If you don't agree that it is the best diet food you have ever tasted, we will happily return your money. That's how confident the company is in the product.

The program is delivered to your door, helping to avoid those tempting outings to the grocery store. Clients on the plan are treated to three gourmet meals daily with two snacks for a well-rounded day of dining. And it's all available for an unbelievable price. Just Heat, Eat and Lose Weight!

More than a diet program, the plan allows clients to change their lifestyles and learn healthy selections of eating. For more information and interviews with Dr. Cederquist and her team, please call 239-591-4004. To learn more about the Bistro MD program, visit www.bistromd.com
