Due to the state of the economy at the present time, financing for new and existing businesses has become a far more difficult proposition. With no positive outlook for the economy expected in the near future, banks and other lenders are tightening up on their credit available to businesses, which makes getting finance even more difficult than before.

"The G Murphy Partnership believes that today it is more important than ever to have an expert in the financing field work with you in getting your financing," says Gregg Murphy, President. "Working with a professional person, through their contacts with the lenders can make all the difference between getting the finance you need and getting turned down.”

The G Murphy Partnership strives to create financial solutions for all of our clients. Each of their clients individual needs are carefully reviewed and analyzed, after which together they prepare and implement a customized plan and strategy in order to move forward in successfully securing their financing needs. “Through years of experience and building relationships with financial institutions, we are able to make the process of securing funds an easier and more successful proposition for our clients,” says Murphy. “We value all our client relationships and consider them as a partnership working together to achieve the same financial goal.” The G Murphy Partnership, a television commercial production agency is one of many satisfied G Murphy’s clients. “With the advise, proper direction and easy to follow plan, The G Murphy Partnership turned a daunting task into both an enjoyable and learning experience. Getting the finance was the icing on the cake!!!,” says Jenny Munford, President. “We’re thrilled to be able to reciprocate with a television commercial production for G Murphy. The commercial will help promote G Murphy’s services to other businesses needing financing, as well.”

Whether you’re starting a new business or wanting to grow an existing one, through their expertise and know-how, they’ll work with you to prepare a solid strategy and business plan... then help you present your case to the banks.
