The summer time is almost here and Placesaroundflorida.com agrees that Summer time is Family time. Placesaroundflorida.com allows you to make hotel reservations at any of the destinations that are reviewed on the site. You can see competing prices and attractions that are near to your place of lodging. Florida caters to families whom have kids of all ages, grown or still young, and those locations have been examined for your informational pleasures by the writers for the website.

Beaches of interest include those in the Panhandle nicknamed the "Emerald Coast", the Gulf Coast Beaches such as Clearwater Beach,

East Coast Beaches such as Cocoa Beach, and South Florida Beaches such as Lummus Beach (South Beach, Miami). The Writers and Webmaster of Placesaroundflorida.com have first person experiences with Florida Beaches, along with historical information on each of their locations. The Staff has taken many photos of many Florida locations and hot spots. Nature lovers can get a glimpse of what is to be expected from some of the snap shots displayed on Placesaroundflorida.com. Pictures display fishing, bird watching and lounging spots around the great outdoors of Florida, particularly those on or around beaches and parks of interest.

Orlando visitors are not excluded with Placesaroundflorida.com's ever popular Orlando Beaches section. This area describes beaches on the east of Florida, an hour away from the Orlando area. Beaches such as Cocoa Beach, Daytona Beach and the Jetty Park at Cape Canaveral are all listed and explained in detail. Their location explanations include places of interest, hotels, restaurants, fishing and surfing spots. The website helps with planning tourist day trips to nearby locations from where they are currently lodging elsewhere in Florida.

Florida is home to thirteen ship, cargo and cruise ship ports, as it has been for over a hundred years. Back in older times, Lighthouses were built to help the guidance of ships around these ports. These lighthouses are now historic sites and are often visited my crowds of people. Placesaroundflorida.com pinpoints the location of these lighthouses around the state and explains their tours and historical usage of each lighthouse. The website acts as an informational brochure that you will have access to before you visit such locations.

The Webmaster, Kirby Collins, said "Florida's distinctive character inspired this website". His website has inspired hundreds of thousands to visit some of its selected Florida locations, which has in turn, created an economic stimulus for the Florida Economy, which already thrives on a top source of income: Tourism. Even if your economy is down, Placesaroundflorida.com offers suggestions of local budget places for food and rooms to stay in.
