Reed Personnel Services Qatar LLC is celebrating 24 months of trading in the Qatar Financial Centre and continues its "Business Seminar Programme - Mujtama"

Reed have been very pleased to work with businesses in Qatar, and would like to give some further added value back, as a key part of the business community that has contributed to their growth in Doha. Starting in February and throughout 2010 Reed will be running regular business seminars - at no cost to attendees - providing relevant information to help senior managers and HR professionals in business make the most of their human resources. The feedback from the first Seminar was very positive with 67 attendees from local businesses in attendance.

What you will gain...
1) Best practice HR, a global perspective – Would you like to benchmark what you do against the practices of other leading global organisations? This presentation from an HR expert and Employment Lawyer with experience in the USA and Europe, will help you understand why you should have an HR Process and how to ensure it will be effective.

2) Best Practice HR, a local perspective – How do you ensure your practice is better than your local competition for talent? A leading local HR consulting expert with years of experience in Qatar and the Middle East will discuss how to take the best practice ideals and make sure they fit within the Middle East environment.

3) Talent Based Interviewing - Do you struggle to select the right people? This session will focus on tips and techniques to ensure your selection process is as thorough as possible.

4) Managing your recruitment agent - Are you getting too many unsolicited calls to your HR team and hiring managers? Do you struggle to know who you need to use for recruiting? Do you have a PSL, could you have a managed agent to save you time and negotiate lower rates for you? This session will ensure you maximise the returns from your investment in external recruitment agents.
